

TFTV Public Transport DIRECTIONS

Getting to York is easy from anywhere in the world. We have great rail links, easy access to major road networks and short travel time to international airports.

The Department of Theatre, Film and Television (TFTV) is based within the University of York, Heslington East Campus. The postcode is Baird Lane, York YO10 5GP.

For further information contact TFTV reception (Tracy Morris): 01904 325220

Arrival by train

There is a frequent, fast train service to York on the main East Coast Line from London King's Cross to Edinburgh. There is also a direct service between York, Leeds and Manchester Airport. Please check <http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/> for more details on your journey.

Directions from York train station

The University is a short bus or taxi ride direct from the railway station.

A taxi from the railway station to the University will take approximately 15 minutes. There is a taxi rank just outside the station.

It can often be just as quick, and significantly cheaper, to take a bus. There are buses from the city centre and railway station approximately every 5 minutes during the day, and it takes around 20 minutes to reach the campus. The bus stop is located outside the main station entrance.

- The UoY66 service runs from York railway station to Campus West and Campus East, via the city centre. To find the bus stop, exit the railway station through the main entrance and cross the zebra crossing directly in front of you to exit the covered area. Once you are outside, cross a second zebra crossing to a small island where you can catch the UoY66 bus to campus.
- The ub.1 is a dedicated free shuttle bus service for travel around the main University campus during term-time.
- The UoY66 also provides free travel around Campus East and West.

Arrival by plane

York is easy to reach from many UK airports. Please check the University's travel advice on airports: <https://www.york.ac.uk/students/support/international/travelling-to-york/getting-to-york/getting-from-the-airport/>

Arrival by bus

You can reach York by coach from many destinations around the country. National Express coaches stop at the railway station. Please check <http://www.nationalexpress.com/home.aspx> for more details on your journey.